India is one of the fastest-growing economies, and knowledge creation and research are essential to sustaining this growth. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 emphasizes the importance of multidisciplinary education and flexible degree structures to enhance higher education in the country.

In line with these changes, higher education institutions (HEIs) are encouraged to offer a range of Master's programs and adapt to new guidelines, such as the Learning Outcomes-based Curriculum Framework (LOCF) and the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS).

To support the implementation of NEP 2020, a Faculty Development Program (FDP) is designed to help educators understand the objectives of the policy and incorporate these insights into curricula and teaching methods, thereby improving the quality of education. The goal is to empower educators and strengthen academic standards by making higher education more flexible, accessible, and responsive to the evolving needs of students.

About MMTTC- Assam University, Silchar

The Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre at Assam University, Silchar (MMTTC-AUS), was established in 2023 under the Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMMNTT) Scheme. The aim of the Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (MMTTC) is to equip individuals from various fields with the necessary skills to meet the growing challenges of their professions and to instil pride in their professional roles. The primary objective of MMTTC is to address the needs of teachers, principals, research scholars, and non-academic staff by enhancing their knowledge and skills through systematic coursework and methodologies.

Vision

To inspire teachers to enhance institutional effectiveness through the development of their personal, instructional, organizational, and professional growth.

Mission

To promote organizational strategies for faculty development that incentivize professional growth among teachers and enable institutional advancement. Faculty development is expected to lead to improved teaching performance and better learning outcomes for both students and teachers. This initiative fosters new perspectives on the student-teacher relationship and increases commitment to educational scholarship. Developing well-rounded skills is a key aspect of faculty development.

About Tilak Dhari P.G. College, Jaunpur

Tilak Dhari College is one of the premier institutions of not only Uttar Pradesh but also in India. It has about 200 well qualified teachers. Almost all of them are Ph.D, many of them are working on minor and major projects sanctioned by various funding agencies. Some of them have been on academic assignments abroad.

There are upwards of 12 thousand students in this college. It is known for its innovative methods of teaching and the quality of its research work. It has been the recipient of a prestigious award given by state government for the best performance in all respect. Most of its alumni are representing it in different fields not only in the country but also abroad.

The college was originally founded as an English Middle School in 1914 by Sri Tilak Dhari Singh. Mr. Singh was the first graduate in this district of his community. It was recognized as Kshatriya High School in 1916. It Became an Intermediate in 1940. It acquired the status of a Degree College in July 1947 in affiliation to Agra University. Its affiliation shifted to Gorakhpur University in 1956. It got the status of Post Graduation in 1970 after a long-drawn protest led by then principal Sri H N Singh.

Mission/Vision

Mission and vision of the institution is to achieve the purpose of education as described by Swami Vivekananda ji. He said "education is the manifestation of perfection already existing in a man"

- To uphold highest ethical standard in the conduct of our profession.
- To inculcate moral and spiritual values among students
- To build lasting relationship with students based on trust and mutual regards
- To create and nurture a culture that supports flexibility and adaptability
- To ensure optimum utilization of resources in teaching and research
- To maximize the use of ICT in teaching, research and extension
- To constantly strive to make the campus eco-friendly
